Servings:

24 Servings (Makes 1 loaf)

1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup water
2 Tbs butter
3-1/2 cups bread flour, divided
1/4 cup sugar
1 tsp salt
1 pkg active dry yeast
1 egg
1 Tbs lemon rind
8 oz. Maraschino cherries, drained and chopped (if desired)

Heat the milk, water and butter briefly in a saucepan just until blended.

In a large bowl stir together 2 cups flour, sugar, salt and yeast. With a wooden spoon, blend in milk mixture, beating well. Beat in egg, lemon rind and the optional chopped cherries. Beat in enough additional flour to create a dough that can be handled easily. Bowl will tend to clean itself as you stir when sufficient flour has been added.

Turn dough out onto a floured board. Flour hands and knead dough, adding flour as necessary until dough is smooth and elastic. Place dough in a greased bowl, turning over once to grease the top surface. Cover bowl with a clean cloth and place in a warm spot. Allow dough to rise until doubled in bulk.

Punch dough down and turn out onto a board and shape into three round loaves. Place on a lightly greased baking sheet about a half inch apart to form a three-leaf clover. (Can also make one braided loaf instead.) Cover with a towel and let rise until doubled.

Bake in a 350 degree oven for 25 minutes or until well browned. Remove from oven and slide onto a rack to cool. If desired, frost with a thin glaze of confectioner's sugar and lemon juice and decorate with halved cherries and citron or candy sprinkles.
